To travel the world looking for small birds is to see everything, for how can you miss an elephant, leopard, historic monument or larger bird? In March and April 2022, Lifetime Naturalist and Conservationist, retired U.S. National Park Ranger, World Traveler and CVAS Board Member Bonnie Clarfield-Bylin and her husband, Stephen, traveled to Kenya for five weeks. For twenty-seven days they adventured on a guided Birding Safari. This program will provide a snapshot of the birds, wildlife and scenery of Kenya.

NOVEMBER BIRDING TRIPS

Since we're still living with some degree of pandemic concerns, CVAS will continue its careful approach to birding trips. Masks will no longer be required for outdoor events, but we won't be offering extra binoculars to share, so please bring your own. And finally, please bring water, wear comfortable shoes and observe social distancing. RAIN CANCELS

We will meet at 8:00 am at the main parking lot, which is accessible off Lynn Road at Via Goleta in Newbury Park. Rancho Sierra Vista is an excellent place to see many of the oak woodlands birds that are common in the Conejo Valley area. We will take time to introduce beginning birders to these species and will teach the best techniques for locating and identifying them. Wear comfortable walking shoes. Bring water and social distance.

Please register in advance by contacting your walk leader Richard Armerding at (310) 701-3878.

Disclaimer: Everyone is welcome to attend any Conejo Valley Audubon field trip, but Conejo Valley Audubon assumes no responsibility for injuries, personal or otherwise, incurred while attending a CVAS sponsored activity and in order to attend, all attendees agree that CVAS is not liable for such accidents. Everyone attends at their own risk.

REMEMBERING BETS BUCHANAN

Dear Bets was such an enthusiastic supporter of CVAS. She was club Historian since time immemorial, and she diligently collected birdy tchotchkes all year long for the raffle table at the Annual Dinner/Auction. She usually had good birds to report at monthly meetings, and on bird walks, she was a dynamo ... hard to keep up with.

Dee Lyon said, "Bets was always ready for an adventure. I would call her and say do you want to go ... and before I even mentioned the name of the spot, she would say 'Sure!' I will never forget our two weeks in my Astrovan as we birded Texas High Island in about 1999."

Linda Easter reminisced, "I have many memories of birding with Bets over the years. She was always really interested in what she was seeing and fun to be with. One of my best memories is the CVAS trip to Costa Rica in 1996 (organized by Sharon Lovell). Bets and her husband were in the group that went, as were Darryl and I. It was a spectacular trip and we all bonded while there."

Bonnie added, "While I did not know her well, she was so often present at monthly programs and bird walks, bringing a warm smile and enthusiasm that will be missed!"

She will indeed be missed!

NATIVE PLANT TIP

by Jennifer de la Torre

If you feel like the late fall and early winter landscape in your yard is dreary, consider planting a Toyon. This plant will provide year-round interest, with the visual treat of beautiful red berries in the late fall and winter. As a bonus, you'll have small white flowers in spring and summer. Toyon Heteromeles arbutifolia (AKA Christmas Berry or California Holly) is one of CVAS's six recommended anchor plants for a native landscape with good reason. It provides food to insects AND will bring a variety of cool birds to your yard for both food and shelter. Our yard has been graced with everything from Hermit Thrushes to Robins, Scrub Jays, Cedar Waxwings, Hummingbirds, Mockingbirds, Warblers, Western Tanagers, Red-tailed Hawks, Coopers Hawks, and MORE!

Toyon can be skinned up and shaped as a beautiful tree, or kept in shrub form. If you have the room, it's a GIVEN as one of the top bird plants!
